

MARIFATULLAH

Knowing & Relating to God

THEOLOGY OF QUR'AN SERIES

Advanced course on the theology and creed of Islam

Course 6

"Marifatullah: Knowing and relating to God" course is the 6th course in the Theology of Qur'an series of 13 Islamic theology courses. Completion of all courses in the series gives you an opportunity to attain a diploma in Islamic theology and creed (aqidah). This particular course has the following content:

- Three sources of Marifatullah
- Knowing God through Qur'an & Hadith
- Getting to know God through the universe
- Knowing God through His Beautiful Names
- Human role in understanding God
- Significance of names : Allah, Rahman & Rahim in Basmala
- How do beautiful names of God through revelation, reason & spiritual experience
- How do we understand seemingly opposing names of God
- Greatest Name (Ismu Aazam) of God
- How does Islam address the transcendence & imminence problem ?
- What do we mean in saying "God is the Greatest" ?

Date: Friday 2nd of July 2010

Time: 7:30pm – 9:30pm

Venue: Conference Room,
Auburn Gallipoli Mosque,
Gallipoli Parade Auburn

Cost: Free

Duration: Once a week for ten weeks

Instructor: Mehmet Ozalp*,
PhD Candidate in Islamic Theology

* Author, "101 Questions You Asked About Islam" and "Islam and the Modern World"

For enquires about the series and for registrations please contact info@isra.org.au or info@gallipolimosque.org.au or call 9646 5972 or 9649 9040